During the PSSA conference early July 2017, several exciting things happened that involved young pharmacists. Firstly, during the PSSA Annual General Meeting (AGM) held on 6 July 2017, a motion to formally recognise the existence of YPG in terms of Section 5.6 of the PSSA Constitution was passed. The composition, mission, activities and structures will be prescribed in Regulation 23 of the Regulations to the PSSA Constitution.

The second exciting thing was the first YPG evening hosted on Friday 7 July 2017 at the Brazen Head, Fourways. The theme was Irish and Green. The lively and energetic atmosphere was contagious, not to mention the hidden singing talents exposed with karaoke.

Hilton Stevens (Southern Gauteng) and Tendai Mutabeni (North West) were crowned Karaoke King and Queen after a smashing duet of Dilemma. They each won a R100 voucher from the Brazen Head Fourways. Armand Algra and Brent Sin-Hidge (both from SAPSF) were the best dressed attendees based on the theme. They won a R100 voucher from the Brazen Head Fourways and a R100 CNA voucher sponsored by Ms Aadila Patel respectively.

Last but not least. On Saturday 8 July 2017 the first Business Meeting of YPG was held. During the meeting, the first official Steering Committee was elected. They will take the lead for the next year. Gawie Malan (Cape Western Province) was elected Chair, Tendai Mutabeni (North West) was elected Project Coordinator and Shawn Zeelie (Northern Cape) was elected Public Relations Officer.
